Haiku / Poetry $15

ADJEI AGYEI-BAAH is a co-founder of Poetry Foundation Ghana and Africa Haiku Network. In 2015, he co-launched the Mamba Journal, Africa's first international haiku journal with Emmanuel Jesse Kalusian.

A new voice in haiku, hailing from Ghana and a leader in the growing haiku movement of Afriku, Adjei Agyei-Baah enriches our world in demonstrating an accomplished sense of this brief poetic form. Often, animal, human and natural forms relate intimately in a fluid and organic sociality which belies the term "personification." These works reveal a poet's passion for his world and culture, without compromise—I highly recommend this book!
